

Executive Bio: Phillip B. Wilson

Labor and Positive Workplace Expert Phillip Wilson

Phillip B. Wilson, President and General Counsel of Labor Relations Institute, is a national expert on labor relations and creating positive workplaces.

Wilson is a highly regarded lecturer, an adjunct professor at Northeastern State University, and the author of numerous books and articles on labor relations, union corruption and creating a positive workplace, including: The Next 52 Weeks; Managing the Union Shop; and Model Contract Clauses.

He has been called on multiple occasions to testify before Congress on the subject of union financial reporting requirements. Wilson graduated magna cum laude from Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois, and went on to earn his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School.

Prior to joining Labor Relations Institute, Wilson practiced law at a Chicago firm where he represented companies nationwide in all areas of labor and employment law. He has also served as director of human resources for a multi-million dollar gaming corporation.

Contact:

Phillip B. Wilson
pbwilson@lrionline.com
(918) 994-2574

Labor Relations Institute
7850 S. Elm Place – Suite E
Broken Arrow, Oklahoma 74011
981.455.9995